

VOIspeed for Travel Agencies and Tour Operators

VOIspeed telephone system is the preferred solution by many travel agencies and tour operators because of its unique benefits:

- Low maintenance costs
- Extremely competitive call tariffs
- Remote working. Great for home based operators but also ideal for companies setting up their operations or call centres abroad with full range of UK phone numbers
- Free phone calls and instant messaging between remote offices
- Flexibility to increase or reduce the number of users based on market demand
- Integrated with travel agency back office software platforms
